

In this newsletter:

1. Experience does count
2. Looking for a new adventure in Education
3. Congratulations

EXPERIENCE DOES COUNT

We're crazy about rendering outstanding service and we continue striving to even better this day by day. With more than 14 years of experience in the recruitment field, you can rest assured – you're in capable hands. If you're looking for assistance in finding a teaching opportunity abroad, you've found the perfect team! If you are not yet registered with us, please complete the online application form and upload your full CV together with a photo in order for us to advise how we can assist you.

LOOKING FOR A NEW ADVENTURE IN EDUCATION

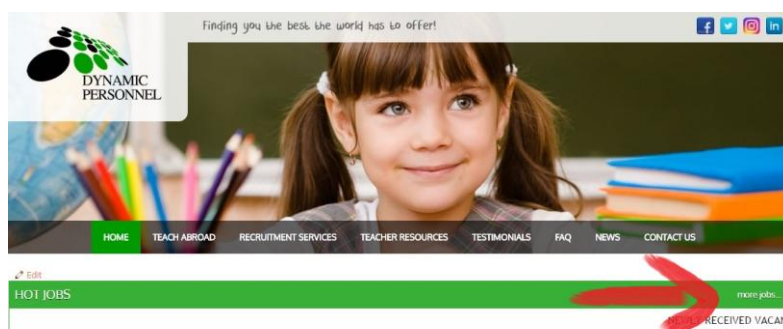

If your international teaching contract is coming to an end and you wish to continue teaching in the Middle East, send us your online application or contact us in order to have your profile reactivated.

Those of you who have already completed your profiles with us, or who have reactivated your profiles, are being marketed for vacancies as per your preferred locations and we will inform you of interviews the moment a school request such.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to those who already have signed contracts. We bet you're counting down the days to departure for your destination abroad. We might just see you there next year during our annual recruitment trip. Wink-wink.

See newly added vacancies currently available on our website. Do visit our website regularly for updates on events as well.

Your recruitment partner every step of the way