

TEACHING IN CHINA THROUGH DYNAMIC PERSONNEL

Exciting new teaching opportunities are coming your way!!

Dynamic Personnel now offers teachers the opportunity to teach in China through our trusted partners based in Guangzhou, China. They are pioneers in the Chinese Education system and the largest in their field in South China. They are also government certified and supported. You can be sure you'll be working with a very reputable agency.

Teach oral English – everyday spoken English – to students from 3 years up to university level as well as business executives. These opportunities are available in areas other than the highly polluted Shanghai and the cost of living is low. Attractive, liveable cities can be your home from 6 months to 5 years. Average breakfast 4-5 RMB, average lunch 10-15 RMB, average dinner 15-20 RMB, 0.5kg beef 30 RMB, 600ml coke 2.5 RMB. Cities you can choose from are Guangzhou, Shenzhen, Shanghai, Dongguan, Foshan to only name a few.

Along with the fast development in China, now almost every school is fully equipped with modern, functional buildings and multimedia classrooms. Schools are honoured to have Western teachers in their classrooms and your presence and dedication are highly appreciated.

Our agents in China will give you full support throughout your employment contract.

A vast number of vacancies are available for teachers from UK, US, South Africa, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Placements are made throughout the year with the biggest intake in February, March and September. Vacancies available at private as well as public schools and universities.

REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor degree or above (any field of study)
- TEFL or any teaching certificate (we can enrol you in a TEFL course if needs be)
- 1 year teaching experience
- No criminal record
- Be younger than 50 years of age

CONTRACT / OFFERS

- Contracts are for 10 months (or longer) and are renewable
- Salary depends on qualifications and experience and start from 2000 USD per month up to 3300 USD per month
- Low cost of living
- Flight provided

- Sponsored work permit
- Airport pick up
- Initial 3 – 5 days hotel accommodation during training
- Free Chinese lessons
- Accident Insurance
- Holiday bonus

Full employment details will be sent to successful candidates which include information on the school, salary, accommodation, visa and additional benefits.

TEACHING SCHEDULE

16 – 18 teaching lessons per week (40 – 50 minutes each) on average

HOLIDAYS

You'll be on holiday during all public holidays celebrated in China.

School term holidays between roughly early July to late August and mid-January to early February.

TO APPLY

Email the following to me:

1. Full CV in word format. Include all contact information e.g. mobile number, landline (if applicable), Skype ID.
2. Colour photograph (head & shoulders) digitally added to your CV or emailed separately

Incomplete applications will be disregarded, thus please ensure that you have read the instructions carefully. Schools and our agents are only interested in candidates who pay attention to detail and so are we.

We can only assist you with your full cooperation. Your CV tells us more about you than merely listing your qualifications and experience. Remember that first impressions last, thus do a spell check before you send your CV to us.

We don't have access to the schools' salary scales and cannot give you full salary information or advice on additional benefits as those differ from location to location and school to school. In order to obtain such full information, you need to submit your application. Once your application has been pre-screened and sent to our agents in China, they will send full details of offers available which will list all salary information and benefits.

